Featuring the Joann Wyss classic novel & Disney 1960 film

The Swiss Family Robinson

One of the world's best-loved stories of shipwreck and survival, the novel has inspired the imagination of readers since it appeared in 1812. A Swiss pastor, his wife and their four young sons, along with two dogs and a shipload of livestock survive to create a new life on a remote tropical island with intelligence, ingenuity and piety.

The Disney 1960 movie, directed by Academy Award® nominated Ken Annakin (Director George Lukas named Annakin Skywalker after him), recreates the adventure and challenges of for the family, from the charming tree house to the exciting encounter and escape from nefarious pirates. The 93 year old director has accepted to attend the culmination program and share stories of making the movie with the audience.
